Sirs:

I received word that you will soon be considering a set of smoking regulations that could affect my business. Once again you bureaucrats want to tell me what to do.

As an American, I do not appreciate being told by my government how to conduct my day-to-day business. More regulations created to stop Americans from doing business the way we see fit will only serve to further the economic decline that this nation is in.

I have owned this business for 4 years. It's hard enough to get customers to come in. If you pass these regulations, they will have even more reason not to come to me. Americans are too independent to go for rules like this.

I urge you to support a fair solution. This proposal is not fair!

Sincerely,
